This event is free to attend for IMCA members plus invited guests and includes several topics of interest to the offshore wind industry. Presentations from IMCA colleagues and other marine renewable energy experts will promote debate on a number of issues. Attendees will have every opportunity to participate during Q&A sessions and therefore steer future IMCA guidance and influence.

WHO ATTENDS
Personnel from marine contractors, field developers, clients, marine warranty surveyors, equipment suppliers and training establishments who are directly involved in marine renewable energy operations.

OUTCOMES
• Promote harmonisation of training and certification for the benefit of the sector
• Encourage and show that openness to safety works
• Prepare members for future developments
